To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend Leo Galvez for a Marketing Manager position with your establishment.

I have known Leo Galvez for 4 years and have nothing but positive things to say. Leo has worked directly for me for the past 4 years, in which, I have been able to establish a great report with him. There is no doubt in my mind that Leo will be an excellent addition to your team.

Leo was my Marketing and Production Manager, not only for Washington Carros, but for my two other companies and was very diverse in his work. Being bi-lingual was a great asset to my companies, clients, and vendors, in which, he was able to communicate on all levels of business at any given time.

Leo orchestrated design projects, from beginning to end, spoke with vendors, members of my company, the printing company, completed the matrix system, all to ensure projects were seen to the end. He was dependable. Working in production there would be 5 hour days or 14 hour days and Leo was always there until the project was completed.

Replicating the exact idea a client envisions is extremely important and difficult to do but Leo was able to be transparent and deliver his design work with punctuality, precision and creativity.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing today to recommend Leonardo Galvez for employment with your company.

It has been my privilege to have Leo on my staff at CheckMedia, Inc. for the last 3 years.

During this period I found Leo to be one of the most trustworthy, loyal and consistent team members I have ever worked with.

Not only did I come to rely on Leo for his consistent job performance, but for his insights into ways that we could improve the business. His marketing experience and wisdom proved invaluable. I expect that even though Leo is no longer employed here, that I will continue to rely on his insights for years to come.

Thank you for reading this letter. It is my sincere hope that it will catapult Mr. Galvez to the top of your candidate list. I can't overemphasize how happy you will be with him on your team.

Please contact me with any questions,

Brian O'Kelly

Marketing & Production Manager

Washington Carros Inc.

Katrina Sundy
Visual Designer

“ His background, experience and skills in project management was key to the success of the weekly magazine production. He leveraged his marketing and sales acumen in order to maintain and create new relationships with clients. Overall, Leo was great to work with; he's a team player, and quickly picked up our production workflow and shared best practices that he previously acquired to improve on our process even further. ”

Brian O'Kelly
Advertising Consultant at Cox Automotive

“ It is challenging to convey in such a small space just how valuable Leonardo was to our team.

Consistently he led and performed above expectations.

He is a quick study who welcomes new tasks and opportunities. Furthermore, he offered insight into my leadership decisions that was invaluable. Leo was well liked by our co-workers and is missed. ”

Rolando Morin, MBA, MIB

Gerente de Marketing en Neo Motors

“ I worked with Leonardo when I was the Vice Dean in charge of the Business School at the Universidad Privada del Norte in Trujillo, Peru.

I can say that Leo is a great person and by far the best employee that was working at our office at that moment. He is an intelligent and highly motivated person and, as the Director for the School of Marketing, he was always efficient and very committed with his work and the objectives of his department.

He is someone I can trust in and a person I would definitely work with again if I ever have the chance. ”
